CRAB ORCHARD.

—We are sorry to have chronicled the death of Miss Martha Holdman, which took place about 9 o'clock last Saturday night, July 1. Her remains were buried Sunday in the family burying-ground in Pulaski. She had been a sufferer for more than a year with consumption, but bore it all with Christian fortitude, looking to the reward offered the faithful. She was a lovely Christian, with scores of friends, who grieve that she should be taken so early. This is the fourth daughter the stricken parents have had to give up and the sympathy of the entire community is with them, but there is only One Who can heal the wounds He makes and to Him we would point them in this hour of grief.

—Mr. Whit Montgomery is lying very low at the Vanderpool House of sciatic rheumatism and his physicians say there is no hope for his recovery. His family is near Rock Castle Springs. Mrs. Matt Kincaid, of Washington, is with her sister, Mrs. H. L. Abraham. Mr. J. R. Bailey, with a party of nine, whose names we failed to learn, left last night on a prospecting tour of New Mexico, with a view of locating if they like the country. Mrs. Laura Spiegel and baby are with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Doores. Mrs. H. B. Farria and children are at Mr. Sam Hardin's. Mr. J. W. Guest is in town. Messrs. Wilson, Russell, Louis and Harry Dillip, of Dillon, were here enjoying the 4th. W. K. Buchanan spent the 4th with his home folks.

—The 4th was a day long to be remembered by the fun-loving part of the county. Very early in the morning a procession of over 200 people from Brodhead and Gum Sulphur, with the Brodhead brass band in the lead, marched through town, and the band boys recognizing the fact that they were passing through a town thoroughly capable of judging and appreciating good music, played some excellent pieces. They marched straight over to Green Briar and certainly enjoyed the good things in store for them. There was hardly standing room, over 2,000 being present. A splendid dinner, dancing and other enjoyments suitable for such an occasion were abundant and each seemed to enter into a determination to have a good day. I never saw better order in such a large assemblage. Only two men were hurt, each shooting himself, and as they have a noted reputation for creating disturbances, it was looked on as rather a providential interference. Mr. Slaughter's boarders speak in highest praise of his management and consideration of their comfort. A very large crowd also assembled at Crab Orchard Springs and at night there was a splendid display of fire works, under the management of Mr. Moody, who has added much to the enjoyment of the pleasure seekers. Mr. Hofmann, we are told, spared neither pains nor money to make it a memorable occasion. To both Green Briar and Crab Orchard Springs our people are indebted for much enjoyment.

Yosemite.

—Miss Burt Roberts, of Mitchellburg, is visiting relatives here.

—Elder J. G. Montgomery preached at the Christian church Sunday to a large crowd.

—John McDaniel, our former merchant and townman, is here this week. He is now in the saloon business at Lexington.

—Marble playing seems to be quite a game here, as some of the boys play from morning till night, barely taking time to eat their dinners.

—Bill Dorn, who has been heaving coal on the No. 7 on the G. & C., has resigned his position to accept one at Lexington. He tells us John Estes will fill his place at present.

—Elder W. A. Gibson, of Hustonville, has been holding a protracted meeting at Grove, a little village four miles east of here, as the result of which six people were baptized here Sunday. We are told several more additions were made to the church in other ways. Bro. Gibson is an earnest worker and has done lots of good in this county.

—The Middleburg Cornet Band gave a picnic at Phil Saturday. It was well attended, considering the early morning rain. Good order was maintained during the day, but like all country picnics, there were a few drinking. Tanglefoot was plentiful. Had Mr. Thomas Benson, the Middleburg correspondent, who gave the picnic and manager at that place on June 17th such a blowing up, been there and tried as eagerly for some of Wade's tanglefoot as he did at Middleburg, we are sure he could have been in a condition to give this one a far different description to what he did the other one, as the boys seemed to be pretty free with it. The boys will give another picnic at Kingsville some time during August, it is said.

—The best authorities now estimate that the House of Representatives will pass the bill repealing the Sherman Silver Purchase law by a majority of at least 50 and probably 75. The Senate is also claimed for repeal by a good majority.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—The extraordinary scarcity of money is having the effect to make people economical.

—Miss Louise Kaufman entertained the younger set Tuesday evening at her elegant home on Danville St.

—Quite a number of our people attended the 4th of July picnic at Crab Orchard Springs and report a big time.

—The Lancaster base ball team went up to Crab Orchard on the 4th and mopped up the earth with the Stanford kid nine.

—George Huffman, who attempted to rape his 12-year-old niece, was brought before Judge Robinson Wednesday, and waived an examining trial. He was returned to jail.

—The Misses Simpson entertained their friends Wednesday evening in honor of their visitors, Misses Altie and Bessie Marksbury, Lizzie Simpson, Grace Kinnaird and Georgia Miller.

—A young girl of 18 years was tried for lunacy before Judge Robinson a few days since and acquitted by a jury. R. H. Tomlinson represented the Commonwealth and Gen. Landrum the defendant. She was a bright, handsome and modest girl and her talk to the jury indicated that her mind was not impaired.

—It is said that there are 5,812 saloons in Chicago, and this in a city in which the W. C. T. U. have erected a temple 13 stories high at a cost of over a million dollars. Would it not be better to sell the temple and use the proceeds in the employment of temperance workers who could attack the monster in his den?

—The wild cat owned by a citizen of town was sold to John Robinson's menagerie for a small sum. The man in charge of the animals said it was difficult to get a wild cat to live through the warm weather. This one was caught in the knolls near Paint Lick and is supposed that there are others in the same locality, one having been seen as large as a spaniel dog.

—Mr. Will Batson is visiting in Lexington. Mr. Wesley McQuerry left for Missouri Tuesday to visit his parents. Mr. Wallace Withers was in town Tuesday. Mrs. Mary Kaufman, of Hustonville, is visiting relatives here this week. Mr. Herbert Price, of Danville, is the guest of Mr. Charley Price. Mr. Jennings Greenleaf, of Richmond, is visiting Mrs. Emma Kaufman. Misses Altie and Bessie Marksbury, Lizzie Simpson, Grace Kinnaird and Georgia Miller returned from the country Thursday. Miss Nannie Gaines is visiting in Cynthiana. Miss Mamie Curry is visiting her aunt in Crab Orchard.

—The birds are here in force. Even the old-fashioned woodpecker that "tapped on the hollow beech tree" and the blue jay of "ye olden time" are back again, accompanied by blackbirds, catbirds, sparrows, red birds, wrens, bluebirds and various others too tedious to mention. They commence their chirping at 4 a. m. and keep it up without intermission until 8 p. m. Their services in destroying insects cannot be overestimated. A veritable "Bob White" arrived on the 4th to assist in the National celebration and gave an elegant concert in Central Park, departing unmolested in the evening.

—The State authorities of South Carolina have taken charge of the liquor traffic, closed all the saloons, appointed a commissioner to purchase the liquors and distribute the same to the various counties to be sold by dispensers for the benefit of the commonwealth. The governor is the boss bartender and it is reported that through fear of personal violence his home is guarded nightly by an efficient police. They expect to realize $150 profit on each gallon sold and to make from a quarter to a half million of dollars per annum. They furnish it in stonped bottles holding from a half pint to six gallons, but no customer is allowed to make more than one purchase each day. Thus far the experiment is said to be very satisfactory to the powers that be.

—The "Daniel Boone Club", of Garrard county, went into camp at the Cold Spring, on Dix river, Monday, the 3d, and remained until the afternoon of the 10th. The camping ground is in Lincoln county, but close to the Garrard line, not far from Hubble. The veterans who answered at roll call were J. A. and R. Burnside, Joel and Dan Walker, Benj. Hudson, J. R. Terry, W. J. Landrum, —Givens, Bud Farris Took Hubble. The target shooting was fine and the dinner splendid. The fish and squirrels were cooked upon the ground and prepared with excellent care by an experienced cook. The Cold Spring has been a famous resort for hunters and fishermen for nearly a century. The spring emerges from the foot of a cliff that overlooks Dix river, and the water gushes out in an immense stream and is nearly as cold as ice. The pool of water into which the stream empties is filled with fine fish, while the woods adjacent are a famous rendezvous for squirrels and small game generally. The location is so secluded that one would have great trouble in finding it without a guide. It is said that many a game of seven up and draw poker has been played at this spot in bygone days.

DANVILLE.

—Bob Ross, for an aggravated assault on his wife, Mary Ross, was fined $50 and costs in the police court Wednesday morning. Frank Masonheimer, Jim O'Brien and Jim Leary, for a breach of the peace, $6.20, each.

—Mr. Edward Coomer was holding a Montana horse belonging to Capt. J. R. Doda, at Kelly's blacksmith shop on Monday, when the animal seized the thumb of his right hand and bit it off at the first joint, afterwards spitting it out of his mouth. Dr. Meyer dressed the wound.

—Harrison Dunn, a negro boy, was arrested Wednesday at Harrodsburg by Marshal K. C. Smith and brought here on a charge of stealing three guns from Hogsett Academy several weeks ago. Two of them have been traced to parties to whom Harrison sold them. Examining trial Thursday at 2 p. m.

—Mrs. J. B. Coleman, of this place, was thrown from a carry near Bargin, Tuesday, and had her head and face badly cut and her body badly bruised. She was in company with her cousin, Mr. M. H. Cozine, of Lexington, and two children, none of whom were injured. The horse they were driving was scared by two gentlemen on bicycles, who rode gaily on, offering no assistance to the wounded lady.

HUBBLE.

—Misses Allie Surber and Laura Hubble are visiting Mrs. Spencer Hubble. Miss Maggie Swinebroad is visiting relatives in Hustonville.

—Mrs. Catherine Blackerby is confined to her room again. James Engleman is down among his many friends again for a few days. Prof. Joe Robinson has bought a new buggy and will go on the road in a few days in the interest of his school at Macksville.

—The Louisville Southern has been placed in the hands of receivers by the U. S. circuit court on application of the Central Trust Co. of New York. Henry Fink and Thomas Spence are the gentlemen named.

—A combine has existed in the freight department of the Cincinnati Southern railroad for some months whereby the railroad has been robbed of between $40,000 and $50,000. Eighteen conductors and 18 engineers, together with the time-keeper, have been leaving fraudulent time checks. These checks were made out by the conductors and engineers and honored by the time-keeper. The trouble is in the Somerset division.

—Julia Force, who killed her two sisters at Atlanta, has been placed in a lunatic asylum. She told the superintendent, whom she had previously known, that she was not and never had been insane; that driven desperate by the ill-treatment of her family, she had slain her sisters; that the legal proceedings which held her back from conviction were acceptable to her family and she submitted if that would do them any good.

MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—Blackberries are scarce.

—The corn crop looks very fine in many localities.

—Jumbo J. McCall reports the best wheat crop of the county.

—No rioting or other troubles occurred in old Rockcastle on Independence day.

—The Pine Hill Coal Co., has discovered a six foot vein of fire clay underlying the coal. Five tons have been sent off to be tested.

—A valuable Jersey cow belonging to Mr. R. L. Stark was found dead in the pasture Thursday morning. The owner thinks she was poisoned by some one.

—The lawn fete given by the Aid Society was a complete success and was enjoyed greatly by all who attended. We hope the ladies will give another soon. Mrs. E. M. McClure is president of the society.

—Mr. Fred Krueger has returned from a visit to the flourishing community of Ottenheim Colony, Lincoln county, and reports everything in splendid trim there. He says the people are all doing well and their prosperity is increasing as time goes on.

—The applicants for teacher's certificates will take the examination this week. Supt. Baker has selected Mrs. Mattie Carter of Brodhead and Mr. Harvey Sigman, examiners for this year, as successors of Mrs. Rosalind Neebitt and Mr. Henry Wood, who held the position during the past year.

—A large party of young ladies and gentlemen drove down to the charming home of Miss Sallie Cook, Pleasant Valley, last Thursday evening where they were entertained by the young hostess in her usual graceful manner. They report a pleasant time and a delightful drive, although Rockcastle roads are nothing like turnpikes at present.

—The Henderson Club had an outing on the 4th at Williams' Park, a new resort, just east of town, near the big fill. A barbecue on a big scale was the principal feature of the affair, and a most glorious time is reported. The club has made arrangements for purchasing the grounds, which will be improved and used for picnic and summer resort purposes.

—Mrs. Mollie Lovell is in Louisville. Misses Lou McKee and May Adams are guests of Mrs. Cleo Brown. The Misses Bower, of Parksville, visited their brother, Will Bower, last week. Edward A. —Rev. Isaac S. McElroy, of Lexington, has accepted the unanimous call to the Presbyterian church of Lexington, Mo., and will take charge about Aug. 6.

—There are 4,007 voters in Barren county and 4,020 Baptists. If every other religious denomination was as well represented and all did their duty as faithfully, not even the advent of the millennial period could catch old Barren with her Sunday clothes off.—Glasgow Times.

—A special from Columbus, Ind., says: "Ex-Consul General Z. T. Sweeney, in his sermon Sunday night made a vicious assault on Chief Justice Fuller for submitting to public clamor and opening the World's Fair on Sunday. He then turned his attention to Gov. Altgeld and roasted him fore and aft for pardoning the Chicago anarchists." Mr. Sweeney is a brother of Elder John S. Sweeney, and is well known here.

—In a letter to the Courier-Journal, Commissioner John W. Yerkes admits that the State has not been represented as Kentuckians would have her, but attributes the "error on the side of economy" to the examples of other State commissions, which at the time the work on the Kentucky building was commenced were petitioning for increased appropriations, their original estimates having been greatly exceeded. He also contends that the time was limited and that the people of the State did not respond as they should have to the efforts of the board to obtain exhibits.

Dead and Damned. The Legislature Gives up the Ghost, After Two Years of Per Diem Grabbing. Tearful Scenes Witnessed as the Solons Take Final Leave of the State Treasury. May the Grand Old Commonwealth Never be Afflicted with Another Such Body, is the way the Louisville Commercial tells in headlines of the blessings which came to Kentucky at noon Monday. Only 52 representatives and 22 Senators were in at the death, the smallest number ever present at a wind-up. The others were at home drawing their per diem, all the same, for services not rendered. Of the mass of measures considered by the body 252 bills and 43 resolutions became laws and there are yet 24 bills on the governor's table assigned, including the educational, charitable institutions and the resolution providing for the codification of the statutes. The body was in session 531 legislative days and cost the State over $600,000. It seemed to work at cross purposes from the beginning, when Speaker Moore was chosen to preside over Harvey Myers. The experienced and capable men were turned down and those of mediocre ability, untrained in the business of law-making, forced to the front. The result could not have been otherwise than failure and disappointment. In fact nothing in life became like the leaving of it, and in our joy over its demise we shall follow for the present at least the ancient and honored custom of speaking no evil of the dead.

SEVERAL years ago Miss Lena Hamilton, of Mason, a tall and divinely fair maiden of some 30 summers, more or less, notified James J. Shackelford, a two times widower, but wealthy, that she was ready, willing and anxious to perform her contract of marriage with him. He answered that he had engaged to marry her in good faith, but recent developments convinced him of his inability to marry and that it would be a crime for him to inflict a fate upon her such as would result from their union. This did not satisfy Miss Lena and she brought suit for $15,000 damages. It was tried and passed upon by the court of appeals that Shackelford's plea was a valid one, if true. Even this did not cause Miss Lena to give up the hope of getting hold of that $15,000 and she again began litigation on the grounds that the defendant was not diseased at all and used that excuse simply to disappoint her both in her matrimonial and pecuniary intentions. The second trial of the case has occupied several days of the Mason circuit court and has attracted a great crowd of people to the court-house, who are much interested in the result.

Col. Polk Johnson bids the legislators a tearful adieu in the expiring issue of his Daily Capital and adds: "May each and all return safely to happy homes and satisfied constituents." Now, our dear Polk, is this not asking too much of even a forgiving Heavenly Father? The prayers of the righteous, we are told, availeth much, but even they should gauge their petitions, or they will ask and receive not, because they ask amiss. With God all things are possible, but to make their constituency satisfied with the members of the defunct General Assembly would strain even the power of Omnipotence.

The Frankfort correspondent of the Courier-Journal says: "Representative D. B. Edmiston, of Lincoln county, has decided to become a candidate for one of the Senate clerkships in the next General Assembly. Mr. Edmiston served in the House as chairman of the committee on enrollments, an important post, which he filled admirably." His friends here would be monstrous glad to see him get that or any other good position.

The people of Owensboro seem determined to stop the legitimate sale of liquor there. An immense meeting was held in the Sam Jones tabernacle Monday, when it is estimated that over 6,000 persons declared for prohibition. It was decided to call an election Oct. 7th. The result seems foreshadowed in the unanimity of the meeting on the resolve that the saloons must go.

The equanimity to codify the laws are Smith, Mulligan and McCain for the Senate and Sims, Dickson and O'Mara for the House, but as their appointment was not approved before the adjournment of the body, some question of its legality is raised. If the General Assembly ever did anything right, the exception failed to be noted.

Mr. Robbs was so grievously besieged with office-seekers that in self-defense he had to place the god of war in his office. —Richmond Climax. This is one of the few good things that Tipton ever got off in his "Thin Column," and even it may require a diagram, until you recall that Bro. James R. Marrs has been appointed chief deputy.

The improvement in the Louisville Post, under the editorial management of Mr. R. W. Knott, late of the Courier-Journal, is most pronounced. The Times, whose bucolic editor seems to have been silenced by a centre shot of grape and shell from the Post, will have to look to its laurels or it will be distanced in the race for supremacy in twilight journalism in the Falls City. It didn't take much of a steed to keep just ahead of it when Weatherwax Young handled the reins, but Brer Logan's got to hump himself now or get in out of the dampness.

We had begun to think that Tom Pettit was the last of the populist tribe and that as he was about to sink into obscurity in his Daviess county home, that that so-called party would no more disturb the body politic. This consummation devoutly to be wished is somewhat dispelled by a dispatch from Columbus, O., saying that the populists have nominated a State ticket from governor down, in a convention hardly large enough to furnish the full quota of officers necessary to run it.

The Newport Journal Co. decided to discontinue the publication of its daily, but will continue to issue a weekly. Our old friend Laurie J. Blakely, who edited the former with so much ability, bids a temporary good-bye to his newspaper friends, with the benediction, "God be with you till we meet again." Bro. Blakely's pencil is too active and bright to remain idle long and we hope before the dog star rages to announce that he is astride the tripod again.

The senior editor of the Jessamine Journal can not move us to anger or unkind retort. He did us a kindness once at a time when it was genuinely appreciated and while he may have forgotten it, we have not nor ever will. We may be a scoffer and a whiskey man, both of which, however, we vehemently deny, but we can never be truthfully accused of the sin of ingratitude.

Things are getting red-hot again in Hawaii. Three Englishmen are at the head of a plot to overthrow the provisional government, kill Minister Blount and King King Spreckles and play havoc generally.

THERE were nine changes in the membership of the General Assembly, owing to resignations and promotions, but there was only one death during the two years' term—J. S. Hargis, of Breathitt.

The fact that only one member of the late Legislature died in the two years' session is another reminder that it is only the good who die young.

CHINESE MAFIA.

The Highbinders Are Again on the Warpath.

Secret Pass Now First Printed—How Mongolian Leaders Are Making Courts and Law a Mockery in San Francisco—Geary Law in a New Light.

(Copyright, 1903.)

Now that the Geary registration law has been declared constitutional, the Chinese highbinders, after a few months' discreet silence, are again on the warpath as if determined to make up for lost time. They are particularly hostile just now to the Chinese Six Companies, the consul and everybody who, during the last twelve months, recommended non-compliance with the law. Had it not been for this advice there is little doubt that they would have procured registration certificates at a time when these documents went at a begging. Now comes the threat of the collector of inland revenue in San Francisco that the first arrests under indicate his renunciation of allegiance to the Tartars, who first introduced that appendage into China, and dresses in the costume of the Ming dynasty. A cup of wine is then prepared, the tip of the neophyte's finger is pierced with a silver needle and a drop of blood is allowed to mingle with the wine which is then drunk by the members present, symbolizing his admission into the blood relationship. Incense and sacrifice are then offered before the high altar, a rooster's head is then cut off and while the blood flows the neophyte swears allegiance to the Tong and imprecates death by decapitation upon himself if ever that oath is broken. The doors are kept guarded, no one is allowed to pass without giving the required sign, and woe to the spy who under pretext of becoming a member seeks to discover the secrets of the Tong. The popular belief is that some such attempts have been made by persons who have paid the penalty of their curiosity and have never been seen again.

When some wrong is done by one society to another and redress has been

When the smoke clears away his mangled body is found and lifted into the ambulance. The highbinder is determined to take no chances and waste no money in San Francisco courts. He has his own notion of California judges and juries and persists in believing that courts are lax and verdicts given to the side that has the longest purse. The notorious assassin, Lee Chuck, whose photograph is above, murdered Yin Yuen at midday on the public street in San Francisco about three years ago. He was caught red-handed. There was no doubt whatever of his guilt. It was a cold-blooded crime, without a shadow of excuse. Yet jury after jury disagreed. Documents were captured by the grand jury showing wholesale bribery; thirty thousand dollars had been contributed to save his neck, and the money was spent with the result that he had three trials before he was convicted. He was sentenced to fifty years in the state's prison. But where is Lee Chuck today? He is on his way to China, a rich man. The governor of California ought to be able to tell why this villain only served a year and a half in prison for a diabolical crime. Such gross miscarriages of justice shake a Chinaman's faith in our judicial system, and he does not offer his grievances in our California courts.

In these highbinder feuds that occasionally disturb the peace of California Chinatown it is curious to notice how one side will avoid incriminating the other. They avoid the police and seem determined to keep their squabbles out of the courts if possible. Like two quarrelsome schoolboys they slip up some back street and fight it out. They do not want to be meddled with, the morsel of satisfaction can be gathered from the fact that nearly all the victims of these feuds are bloody men who in nine cases out of ten would never get their deserts in a court of law.

The courage displayed in these feuds discounts the traditional opinion that a Chinaman is a coward in war. The average highbinder does not know the law, as soon as instructions are received from the treasury, will be the highbinders and bad characters, of whom he has a list.

The founders of Chinese highbinder societies were political refugees who, having made several unsuccessful attempts to overthrow the present Tartar dynasty in China, had to flee to distant lands to save their necks. They originally formed a society called the Fried association and established themselves on the Pacific coast under the name of the Chee Kung Tong, or "The Chamber of High Justice." Wherever this brotherhood has found a footing in the eastern cities it is known as the Yee Hing society, or "Society of Righteous Brethren." As a revolutionary organization conspiring against the government of China, it has long been practically dead, and while still retaining its old nomenclature and forms, it has ceased to plot against the emperor of China and has degenerated into a secret society of assassins and blackmailers. Professed to be a benevolent association and as such incorporated under the laws of the state of California, it is declared to be in reality a self-constituted star chamber, an organized band of villains refused, or when a woman has been stolen from a house of ill fame and her kidnappers have either refused to restore her or pay her redemption money and the damages claimed; or when one society in its blackmailing raid poaches upon another's preserves and collects money from a house over which it has no control, there follows a little war. The hostile bands select their soldiers and arm them for the fray. The feud that raged in San Francisco Chinatown a few months ago in which several Chinamen lost their lives arose from a quarrel over the abduction of a woman from a Chinatown den opened by one of these societies.

When it is remembered that there are sixteen thousand Chinamen in San Francisco and only about two thousand Chinawomen; that three-fourths are fallen women; that the price of a Chinawoman averages about $2,500, and that the law forbids the importation of Chinawomen even of the virtuous class to the United States, it can easily be understood how jealousies, quarrels and bloodshed take place in a quarrel where the bachelors are so numerous and the females so few and of such commercial value.

what fear is. The writer has seen them stand unmoved with the bullets whistling around where a European would turn pale. Even when lying on the ground mortally wounded the wounded man has been known to raise his head, take aim, fire a parting shot at his fleeing antagonist and then resigned himself to the ambulance. At the hospital he will bear pain without anesthetics and without a groan the content, if assured that money has been provided to pay Buddhist masses for his soul.

The ticket above printed is the first reproduction of a secret membership certificate ever made public. It says on top: "Office of the Yee."

The octagon contains a mass of secret signs and pass words which only the initiated can understand. One stanza has been with difficulty deciphered and roughly verified is:

"The mystic signs inscribed below No stranger's eyes discover, Brethren alone these secrets know, But tell them not to others."

The foot of the ticket gives the following particulars:

"Ticket issued to Chan Ah Tak of the township of San Wei, China, who has paid dues amounting to $5."

"Dated 10th year of Teen Wan, the Wing month and 22nd day."

"(Signed) Huey Sam, mother chief; Leony Chung, champion; Ah Wah Foom, patriarch."

DEATH has visited the family of Ben-hen Flora, late of this county, twice in two weeks. Miss Florence Flora died on the 28th, after an illness of a week. The Richmond Climax says that while visiting her brother she took suddenly sick and died soon afterward. A brother, Alonzo, died but two weeks since. Miss Flora was a handsome girl, bright and amiable, and her death was peculiarly sad.

COL. D. G. SLAUGHTER says there were fully 2,000 people at his picnic and all had a glorious time. The two men who got shot were not on the grounds, as perfect order was maintained the entire day. Christ Laver and Armp Roller, who accidentally shot themselves, the former in the hip and the latter in the foot, are not seriously hurt, perhaps the more the pity. Laver is the uncle of Roller.

V. W. E. ARNOLD has succeeded in getting $400 for Mr. Sam Wharton, by great effort. Mr. Wharton has been a particularly unfortunate man. Shortly after his marriage to his first wife she went blind and his second wife also became blind and helpless a few years after their union and has since remained so. He has a daughter who has always been a charge upon him and the misfortune which befell him Tuesday, at his time of life, makes it with his other drawbacks, peculiarly grievous to be borne.

WANTED.—An experienced male teacher for the principalship of the Crab Orchard public school. The school usually enrolls 100 to 125 pupils. Address at once R. H. Bronaugh, W. E. Perkins or George Lee James, Crab Orchard.

THE 4th was one of the calmest and most restful days that the few people left in town ever enjoyed in Stanford. But for the fire and a runaway horse or two there would have been nothing to disturb the tranquility that reigned supreme.

SOME people do not know when they are well off. A Madison delegation went down to Frankfort to have the 4 per cent. raise taken off, but instead got 3 more put on. The Climax tearfully adds, "The board of equalization is a fraud and must go."

ONLY THREE KILLED.—Whisky and pistols are a bad pair to draw to on any occasion, especially on the 4th of July when patriotism and the temperature are both at red heat. At a celebration near Woodbine, Tuesday, John Markee, James Francis and Dempsey Smith, were killed in a row. Joel Mitchell, who is thought to have done the killing, is still at large.

WHILE sinking a pontoon the other day, Elder Joe Severance, Jr., who can turn his hand to anything, got his fore finger caught in the fixtures and came near having it torn off. It will somewhat disfigure the appearance of his hand when he gestures, but he says that doesn't matter. He can't afford to throw in gestures, anyway, for the pay he gets for preaching.

SOMETIME ago James Guthrie, of Louisville, attached property of Gen. R. M. Gano, at Dallas, Texas, on the ground that he was illegally conveying it. The general thereupon instituted suit for $50,000 damages against him for injury to his character. In the legal contests Mr. Guthrie's attachment was sustained, but in the damage suit the jury were unable to agree, after a five weeks' siege, just closed. Six of the jurors, we learn from a Dallas paper, wanted to give Gano $75,000 damages, five favored actual damages of $7,000 or less and one refused to give a cent.

THURSDAY as Mr. Tilford Messer was standing on the street holding his horse, the animal ran off and the reins tripping Mr. Messer up and catching him around the body, he was rolled for some distance, but finally got up not much the worse for his experience. We don't mean to say that Mr. Messer is a tough citizen, but there are not many of us who could go through such a performance and come out as well. The horse went on till he broke the vehicle all to pieces and then stopped, pretty well satisfied with his exploit.

FIRE.—The fire alarm was sounded at 11 o'clock Tuesday, when the town was nearly deserted, but Chief Bruce, with the few of his company present and willing volunteers, soon had the fire apparatus headed towards the smoke and going at pell-mell gait. He got as far as the Danville crossing, when it was found that it was Mr. Sam Wharton's house that was burning and as that was near the toll gate some distance beyond the outside fireplug a halt was called. A number of persons went on, however, to find that the house was entirely consumed with all its contents, save the things in two lower rooms. As there was no insurance the loss is nearly complete and falls very heavily on Mr. Wharton, who is old and without other property. A subscription paper was at once started for his benefit, which was liberally signed.

Your account is due. Please call and settle it at once. A. A. Warren.

Hot, hotter, hotter'n'ell. That's the way to compare the weather of yesterday. It was red-hot and still a heating.

UNDERTAKER HUFFMAN furnished a casket yesterday for the three-year-old daughter of Wm. Melton, who died of brain disease.

WILL THOMAS and Henry and Ike Logan, all colored, were fined $5 and costs each in Judge Carson's court yesterday for drunken and disorderly conduct.

It is reported that George Miller Givens and Judge Stephen Burch have been promised good gauger and storekeeper places. It is also told that for the three distillery places in Boyle there are 165 applicants. Was there ever such an exhibition of the itch for office?

'SQUIRE SMILEY is getting in his work. He sent another man to jail yesterday for 10 days and fined him $25 for carrying a concealed weapon, George Baldock, who is said to be a very bad one. Marshal J. T. Dever, who brought him hither, says he will have to work out a fine for disturbing the peace at Hustonville, when he gets through his term in the sweat box here.

UNSETTLED.—Capt. Frank Harris, chief train dispatcher, tells us that as yet the company is experimenting on changes in order to adopt those most beneficial. No improvements have been made at Lebanon Junction and it is rumored that the plan now is to make South Louisville the terminal point and put the improvements there. If this is done Rowland may yet blossom as of yore.

J. A. GIVENS, who is affectionately known by his intimates as "Jim Bob," is regularly announced to-day for sheriff in our candidates' column. Mr. Givens was a member of the democratic county committee for years and has always been a wheel-horse in the democratic cause. This is his first time to ask for office and he feels like he will not be disappointed. He is a mighty good man, we make bold to say.

STILL A FUGITIVE.—Odie Paul, the man who shot Ike Helm at McKinney, an account of which was published in our last issue, is still at large, the efforts of the sheriff and others to apprehend him proving futile. Judge Varnon yesterday applied to the governor to offer a reward for Paul. Perry, who was with Paul at the time of the killing and who is alleged to have fractured Helm's skull with a chair before he was shot, will have his examining trial to-morrow. He is now in jail.

THE Middleboro News derives consolation from the decision of the U. S. Court in the Cardiff cases, as it may be the cause of more money being dumped into the Magic City. The Cardiff Company is sustained in its claims against those who bought lots at the auction sale which opened up that town. Their plea that payment should not be made thereon because the company did not carry out its agreements, is denied, on the ground that without such payment the company could not do all it promised.

A CIRCULAR from the Superintendent of Public Instruction, Mr. Ed Porter Thompson, says that the attorney general has decided that all candidates who mean to stand for election to the office of county superintendent in November, 1895, must be examined on the last Saturday in this month. The county board for the examination of candidates will be constituted as heretofore, of the county judge, county attorney and a competent person selected by them. Those who prefer to do so can be examined by the State Board of Examiners at their office, on the same day.

THE 4th of July was a gala day indeed and in truth at Crab Orchard Springs, and was heartily enjoyed by the 1,500 or more "picnickers" who participated in the festivities. The day was as propitious as one could wish, the crowd was jolly and well behaved and nothing was said or done that would cause any one to revert to the day otherwise than with the most pleasant recollections. The Stanford Gold Band was on hand with 21 members and the music they made would please even the most fastidious. There were tub races, three-legged races, wheelbarrow races and other amusements of the kind, including two games of base ball. The first between the Crab Orchard and Junction City was won by the former by a score of 16 to 15 and the latter between the Stanford and Lancaster teams resulted in a victory of 15 to 9 for the latter club. Later in the evening the fire works began and for half an hour one could well imagine himself witnessing the Last Days of Pompeii or some similar pyrotechnic display. The cake walk afterward created much interest and was contested for by the following couples: Miss Alice Holmes, Will Shank; Miss Ella May Saunders, Mr. George C. Keller, Jr.; Miss Glenn Bibb, Sam Menefee, Miss Lizzie Menefee, Rowan Sauley; Miss Annie Menefee and Pearson Miller. All did beautifully, but the first named couple won the cake "in a walk." The ball commenced in earnest at 9:15 and until far into the wee sma hours Terpsichore was worshipped. The picnic was a grand success and Mine Host Hofmann and his handsome wife are to be heartily congratulated for it.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—James Bewick, a widower of 33, and Mrs. Sallie Bewick, a widow of 23, celebrated the 4th by getting apliced, in this county.

—H. C. McDowell, Jr., son of the Collector at Lexington, and Miss Eleie, daughter of Henry Boyle Clay, of Rogersville, Tenn., were married Wednesday.

—Congressman Breckinridge emphatically denies the report that he is to be married. People will talk, you know, and widowers come in for at least their full share.

—Forty-five years ago James McGill and Miss Biddie Hayden, of Parkersburg, W. Va., quarreled and he went West. There was no communication between them and each supposed the other dead, till recently Jim was possessed of a long-ling desire to see his Biddie of the long ago. He came East, found her still single and faithful, asked her to marry him, she assented, the knot was tied and now they are at the World's Fair, taking in the sights and billing and cooling like a pair of turtle doves. He is 65, she 60, but age has not withered or custom staled their affections and they are as spoony as in their adolescence.

—A most horrible crime is reported from Bardwell. Mary and Ruby Ray, 16 and 12 respectively, started out to pick blackberries. A short time afterward they were found in the bushes with their throats cut from ear to ear. A sheriff's posse is scouring the country in search of the unknown fiend who committed the deed.

MIDDLEBURG.

Thieves relieved W. T. Durham's smoke-house of a large side of bacon, last Saturday night, while the family was at church.

Emmett McCormick bought 300 lambs in the Mt. Olive and Rich Hill vicinities last week, and passed here with them yesterday.

A party of some 150 went to Roy's Mill Tuesday and spent the day fishing, and what they lacked in catching fish they made up in having a good time.

M. S. McMullin knocked Bill Wheeler down at Yosemite on the 4th and took from him a pistol he was handling very carelessly. Milt is an applicant for the post-office over there and should be appointed now without further delay.

If Emmett McCormick is half as popular in Lincoln county as he is in this part of Casey, he will have no difficulty in securing the nomination for the office of assessor, for which he is a candidate. For honesty and fair dealing, Emmett is second to none in the State, and if Lincoln county wants to do the proper thing she will nominate him. Here's hoping that he will get there in good shape.

The Contents.
"I suppose you have your lunch in that market basket," said Hojack to Tomdik as they met in the World's fair grounds.
"No," replied Tomdik. "In that basket I carry the money to pay for my lunch."—Harper's Bazar.

Loving Husband—Goodbye, darling. Should I be prevented from coming home to snip I will send you a note by a messenger boy.
Trusting Wife—Not at all necessary dear. I have already taken it out of your coat pocket.—Truth.

Thoughts For The Hour.
To get away from the blood and ennui of the struggle is the first effort of patriots recovering from war. To commemorate the virtue and heroism of the army is to ennoble those traits in men by which nations are molded and upheld.

AMONG THE MOUNTAINS.—The best route to the Eastern cities is via Cincinnati and the E. F. V. over the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway. The scenery through New River canyons and over the Alleghany and Blue Ridge Mountains is wonderfully beautiful and varied. The E. F. V. runs solid to New York via Washington. It is electric lighted and carries a through dining car. No other train in America surpasses it and it is the only train to the East with through dining service. Among the Virginia mountains along the Chesapeake & Ohio are more than 20 famous summer resorts. A pamphlet issued entitled "Virginia in Black and White" describes these resorts, and the scenery of the route, and will be mailed free by addressing E. B. Pope, Western Passenger Agent, St. Louis, Mo., or C. B. Ryan, Assistant General Passenger Agent, Cincinnati, O.

much attention at a Washington ball by her remarkable appearance of health. The glow of health and the charm of beauty need not depart from so many women, when a certain remedy is used. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for their functional and organic diseases. It properly cures nausea, indigestion, bloating, weak back, nervous prostration, debility, and sleeplessness. Strength is renewed, energy returns and beauty again blooms. It is purely vegetable and perfect in its action. Druggists have it.

HOUSEHOLD HELPS.

Hot lemonade is a popular cure for colds.
A schoolboy's rubber will take many a spot out of kid gloves.
It is said that if knives or dishes are thoroughly heated when dry the disagreeable odor of onion will be at once removed.

Soups and dressings are much improved in flavor by sprinkling with the chopped roots and tops of celery which have been dried.

An umbrella should be stood handle down when wet. If stood with handle up the water gathers around the ring and soon rots the cloth.

Put on plenty of bed cover and let some fresh air from out-doors get into the house, being particular to allow no draft to strike the sleepers.

By using one teaspoonful of powdered borax to one quart of boiling starch the stiffness and gloss will be improved, besides it will prevent sticking.

If burning oil falls upon the floor do not throw water upon it. This only feeds the flames for the time being. Smother the fire with carpet or blankets.

To make chocolate caramels take one pint of New Orleans molasses, one pint of brown sugar. Cook till brittle when tried in water, and just before removing from the fire add a half cake of chocolate. They need no flavor.

It is said that the white of an egg beaten with five grammes of alum in five grammes of sweet oil applied as paste to the face on retiring prevents wrinkles, keeps the flesh from becoming flabby and is strengthening and softening to the skin.

USEFUL WORK APRON.

It Is Not Only Convenient, But Also Very Pretty.

I have such a useful work apron that I feel I must tell you about it. It is made of pongee silk, in the natural ecru shade, and the top is a width thirteen inches long. Another piece, twenty-six inches long, is basted along the bottom edge of the upper piece, turned over, folded back on the front, and has a two inch wide hem basted across the top. Two rows of stitching on each end of this longer piece forms a casing, and the edges of the folded over part are neatly oversewn together. A hem at the top of the apron forms another casing through which ribbon two inches wide is run for a belt, one inch wide is run through the bag part, ending in pretty bows. When in use the apron is pulled on the ribbon just enough to make it set well. When through working, one's work can be slipped in the bag, the strings drawn together, the bag rolled up and put away.

The pongee silk may have pretty flower designs worked on it in outline, or the bag may be made of flowered satin. It is very pretty either way.—Home Queen.

Sciatic Rheumatism, Nervousness and Insomnia.
Nashville, Tenn., March 3, 1931.—The Stockton Medicine Co., Nashville, Tenn. Gentlemen:—I had Sciatic Rheumatism, combined with nervousness and insomnia for six weeks, and having heard of so many persons cured of nearly every disease by taking Stockton's Antiepileptic, I concluded to try it, and the result was wonderful. It gave me almost instant relief and in five days I went to my office. I take great pleasure in recommending it. Respect yours,

Blindness, Paralysis, Rheumatism.

Guthrie, Ky., Sept. 6, 1897.

Dear Sirs—More than two years ago my eyes began to fail me. I immediately applied to eminent oculists for relief; for eighteen months they treated without a particle of benefit. Finally, about three months ago I went totally blind, and as a last resort, I procured an Electropole, which, very much to the gratification of myself and family, has restored my sight. It has also greatly benefited my wife and daughter. My wife has been a subject of paralysis for more than two years, and my daughter a sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism for more than twelve years. All this has been effected in the last two months. Too much can not be said in praise of the Electropole. I am the possessor of the only one in existence and it could not be reproduced, all the wealth of the universe could not purchase it. I consider it the greatest invention of the age.

Truly and gratefully yours,

On the 26th of May, while in his home en route to Chicago, he was suddenly taken with an attack of diarrhea. Having sold Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for the past 17 years, and knowing its reliability, he procured a 25-cent bottle, two doses of which completely cured him.
